

The 7th grade studied what the body system does, how it works with other systems in the body and what diseases can affect the system.

The 8th graders studied "Water: what is the matter". Some of the 8th graders visited TMWRF and some were able to work with the scientists from TMWRF while they were analyzing the water from the Marina.