Resolution Changes with Fiscal Impact

Short description	General Fund		Other Funds		Assumptions
	FY16	FY17	FY16	FY17
2% base pay increase effective 7/1/15 and another 2% effective 7/1/16	$ 22,000	$ 50,000	$ 7,000	$ 15,000	Impacts calculated on 10 filled and 0 vacant positions including those in the Executive Resolution, Judges and City Attorney. Judges and City Attorney are included due to the fact that their pay is determined by the pay received by Department Heads.
Eliminate requirement to hire at bottom of pay range					Fiscal impact not determined due to uncertainty of future hires. No turnover is expected.
Shortening the waiting period for health and long-term disability insurance for new hires by 30 days					Fiscal impact not determined due to uncertainty of future hires. Note: The City's monthly share of family coverage on a new hire in FY16 is $1,472.
Sick leave cash-out upon retirement to allow portability to medical plans outside the City (up to $25,000 per year)					Cannot determine the short-term fiscal impact. Looking forward, this could result in an escalated cash outflow, but could also work to reduce our health insurance costs and OPEB liability if retirees leave the City's Group Health Plan
Tuition reimbursement increase from $1,000 to $1,500	$0 - $4,000	$0 - $4,000	$0 - $1,000	$0 - $1,000	Ranges are used since there is no way to determine how many employees within this employee group will utilize this optional benefit. Upper end of ranges reflect all employees using the full benefit
Annual leave cash-out of up to 80 hours per year	$0 - $51,000	$0 - $52,000	$0 - $11,000	$0 - $11,000	Ranges are used since there is no way to determine how many employees within this employee group will utilize this optional benefit. Upper end of ranges reflect all employees using the full benefit
